SILVER CAMPAIGN

Indiana Free Silver Democrats Doing Good Work

MARYLAND AND WEST VA.

The Light of Free Silver Logic Begins to Burn in Those States—Lamont Said to be in California on a Foolhardy Mission.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 12.—The committee appointed by the conference of free silver democrats that followed the annual meeting of the state editorial association at Maximukkee, have laid the foundation for a free silver campaign. Senator Turpie advised the committee not to be too radical in any action taken. He recommended that steps be taken to form a state silver organization within the democratic party. The committee, after having consulted other prominent free silver members of the party, decided to do nothing at this meeting except form a temporary organization which will agitate the question and in the course of a few weeks issue a call for a state meeting to organize a league. All the prominent independent coinage democrats in the state will be invited to attend a meeting to be held here.

IN MARYLAND.
WASHINGTON, July 12.—A convention of Maryland citizens interested in the silver question began here today. The call designated the assembly as a "mass meeting," but the attendance was limited to about a score. E. M. Burchard, of Hyattsville, Md., who had projected the convention, explained that the small convention was because "the farmers are busy now and everybody is at work."

Mr. Burchard made a long address, laying the hard times to the depreciation of silver.

IN WEST VIRGINIA.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 12.—A call has been issued for a meeting at the state house next Tuesday evening for the purpose of organizing a bimetallic league to espouse the restoration of the bimetallic and monetary conditions existing prior to 1873. There are fifty signers, among them being State Auditor I. V. Johnson (democrat), Judge John Drew (republican), Senator G. F. Patton (democrat) and Hon. Abraham Barlow (republican).

LAMONT'S FOOLHARDY MISSION.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—A local paper says there is reason to believe that Secretary Lamont, who is now on the Pacific coast, is seriously looking after the defense of the western seaboard. It is in reality on a political mission looking toward the nomination of President Cleveland for a third term. While the secretary is engaged in examining forts and other requirements of war, he is said to be quietly sounding the leading democrats of California and the northwest, to see if they would lend their support to a Cleveland boom should the president announce his candidacy for a third term. The same paper says that H. W. Van Selden, Secretary Carlisle's private secretary, who is now in the city in connection with the annual investigation of the San Francisco mint, is believed to be on a political mission similar to that of Secretary Lamont, with the exception of the fact that he is attempting to gauge the popularity of Carlisle with the western democrats. When questioned about the rumor Van Selden denied that his visit to the coast had any political significance, but said that if Carlisle were offered the presidential nomination he would obey the call of his party.

Nineteenth Century Club.

The club met at the home of Mrs. Coray. In the absence of the vice-president Mrs. Bartow, Miss Jennie French acted as president. Miss Rose Moore was secretary pro tem, and Miss Florence Pemberton filled the critic's

BURNS' SLAYERS

Safe and About Ready to Appear For Trial.

SO SAYS AB. KOFFORD,

A Brother of Mone—Both Murderers Were Hit When the Officers Shot at Them Last Fall—Mickie Suffered Most—"We Have a Hard Name," Says Ab.

Last September's tragedy in the mountains east of Spring City, in Sanpete county, which resulted in the killing of Sheriff Burns by Mone Kofford and James Mickie has not been forgotten by the people of Utah. Any and every newspaper report concerning the whereabouts of the murderers and the likelihood of their being brought to justice is read eagerly, hence the following taken from a letter published this morning by the Salt Lake Tribune from its Mount Pleasant correspondent will be of interest:

Ab. Kofford, brother of Mone, who may be indicted for assisting the murderers to escape from the officers of the law, was interviewed yesterday by the correspondent. He said, in reply to the question, "Where are the boys now?" that they were out of the jurisdiction of the United States, and had no fear of interference, but as they were anxious to have the matter settled, and as they believed that public opinion had quieted down, they were willing and nearly ready to give themselves up.

The boys did not get out of the mountains until late in the winter, but fared very well. Mone received a wound when he and Mickie were discovered and shot at, the bullet cutting his right side, but had entirely recovered. Mickie, however, had suffered considerably from his wounds in the wrist and side, and was yet troubled with the injury.

The parents and families of both boys have known of their whereabouts all along, and Ab admitted, had assisted them. He further said that his brother and Mickie have been approached to surrender at various times and were nearly induced to do so last fall, but they were fearful that they would not get a fair trial, and Mone finally decided that he would never give himself up until positively assured that public feeling had died down.

Through the families, legal assistance is being secured, and as soon as a few more details are completed, Kofford and Mickie will appear in court. Ab says he is certain that an effort will be made to induce him as an accomplice, but would now reserve his side of the story until later. "I am not afraid," he said, "to tell all I know concerning the tragedy and the boys at present but no one will believe me. We have a hard name, and public prejudice is against us."

He would not tell where the boys were, but a smile greeted the questioner's suggestion that they were in Mexico. He intimated that if he could be assured of a fair report he would answer all questions, but desired a more private place. He expressed a grievance at the newspaper reports of the affair, and when told that the reports were in conformity with the facts as ascertained, he said, "Yes," but no one had offered to present their version of the shooting.

"I suppose you will be out again tonight," remarked Sportington's wife severely.
"I will," he replied with feeling, "unless I manage to hold better hands than I got last night."—Washington Star.
